

CENTRAL PHOENIX MEDICAL CLINIC

Beginning in April 14, 2003 new government Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act (HIPAA) privacy regulations will take effect. Without your written consent, any of your health information cannot be given to family members or even left on your home answering machine. All test results or answers to any questions will either need to be mailed to you or you will need to make a follow-up appointment to discuss them. If you still want us to leave results or messages on telephone answering machines, voice mails, family members, friends, etc., you can still do so. However you need to give us consent in writing. This consent can be revoked at anytime.
